Dear Hiring Manager,

I am applying for the Key Account Manager (Paid Media / Performance Marketing) role at Herb (100% remote Canada, up to CAD $130,000 OTE). At Lumin Marketing Group I own client relationships and multi-channel delivery for 2 active SMB accounts, so I already sit between paid, SEO, creative/ops work, and the people paying for results.

How I would support Herb clients:

- Act as the clear point of contact: goals, budgets, timelines, and honest status when performance slips
- Monitor Google Ads and Meta performance and translate CPA, ROAS, and lead-quality signals into next actions
- Orchestrate SEO, paid, and CRM follow-up so campaigns ladder up to traffic and sales outcomes, not vanity clicks
- Run weekly or monthly reporting clients can act on, with clear recommendations to scale, cut, or test
- Use Claude and Claude Code for research and draft support, with human review before anything client-facing goes out

I am honest that cannabis-category marketing and a large concurrent performance-account book are still growing for me. What I bring today is Google Ads Certification, hands-on Google Ads and Meta ownership, SEO plus Go High Level CRM follow-through, and paced client communication. Screening answers: I can start promptly; about three years owning digital marketing agency client delivery as Marketing Director; I have expanded services with existing clients; I manage recurring multi-month engagements; I currently own 2 active accounts concurrently; I have worked with service and local eCommerce-style funnels including Shopify-adjacent sites; email/SMS automation via Go High Level (not years on Klaviyo specifically); hands-on paid media across Google and Meta. Resume attached.

Best regards,

Dylan Michael
