Dear Hiring Manager,

I am applying for the Paid Media Specialist role at Attention Sales & Marketing (Moncton / remote Canada). I live in Edmonton and can work remote within Canada. At Lumin Marketing Group I plan, launch, and optimize Google Ads and Meta campaigns for SMB clients, then explain spend and outcomes in plain language. I am Google Ads Certified and used to owning a small client book end to end.

How I would support Attention client accounts:

- Build and manage Google Ads (Search focus, with Performance Max / Display as needed) and Meta campaigns
- Write and test ad copy, rotate creative, and keep budgets paced to client goals
- Maintain conversion tracking hygiene and monthly reporting that ties results back to objectives
- Use Claude and Claude Code for research and draft angles, with human review before publish

I am honest that Attention-scale multi-vertical books and deep compliance-category media policy work are still growing versus my current two SMB accounts. What transfers is day-to-day Google and Meta ownership, GA4 comfort, client communication, and practical AI use that speeds work without skipping judgment. Resume attached. Please confirm base compensation is at least CAD $60,000.

Best regards,

Dylan Michael
