Dear Hiring Manager,

I am applying for the Performance Marketing Specialist (Paid Search) role at Odd Bunch (fully remote within Canada). I live in Edmonton and am a Canadian resident. Odd Bunch's mission to make produce more affordable while cutting food waste is clear and practical, and I want to help paid search stay efficient in Canada while supporting demand in newer markets. At Lumin Marketing Group I own Google Ads and Meta execution for 2 active SMB accounts, with GA4 reporting and Go High Level follow-up so leads do not stall after the click.

How I would support Odd Bunch paid search:

- Own day-to-day Google Ads work: structure, negatives, budget pacing, RSA tests, and clear CPA-minded notes
- Keep measurement honest: reconcile platform results with GA4 and simple Sheets reporting stakeholders can act on
- Support B2B and lead-gen style paid search where success is qualified leads, not vanity clicks
- Use Claude and Claude Code to speed research and draft angles, with human review before publish

I am honest that multi-market DTC ownership (Canada/US/Australia), Microsoft Advertising and Reddit as mature channels, and Triple Whale attribution depth are still growing compared with Odd Bunch's stack; my current book is two SMB accounts rather than a national subscription brand. What transfers is hands-on Google Ads execution, conversion-minded reporting, CRM follow-through, and comfort using AI tools to work faster without skipping human review. Resume attached.

Best regards,

Dylan Michael
